

Fall 21 Clubs - Sept 6-Dec 10- 12 weeks

ELEMENTARY CLUBS

Learn French with Playdoh! Fall Semester

Teacher: Rachel Margailon

Meets: Tuesdays at 2:00-2:45 p.m. CST

Zoom Room: Clubs/Membership

Would you like to learn French by playing and building simple things in playdough? Then grab a few different colors of playdough and join the fun! As we play, we will use our creativity to see how a new language can become alive under our fingers and eyes! Each time, we will build up and slowly but surely expand our vocabulary, starting from simple words like colors and shapes to action words and animal names, till you have a good base of vocabulary that will enable you to learn French with ease later on if you choose too.

Linguistics Club

Teacher: Dana Hanley

Meets: Friday 10:00 a.m.-10:45 CST

Zoom Room: Clubs/Membership

7th -12th Did you know that languages are grouped in families and the words we speak have histories going back thousands of years? And that the origin of the word "dog" is one of the great mysteries of English? Join the linguistics club to learn more about the study of language in a more informal context. We will also be preparing to compete in the newly formed Linguistics Bowl.

Literary Journal

Teacher: Dana Hanley

Meets Friday 11:00-11:45 CST

Zoom Room: Clubs/Membership

True North is launching a school literary journal! Join the Literary Magazine Club to collaborate on the development and vision of the magazine, collect submissions from other youth and learn the skills necessary to publish and promote their own magazine. Students will learn key magazine roles, such as editing, layout and design, social media management, principles of advertising and project management. The Journal will be published in our password protected community. This is a great opportunity for students to build their Transcripts!

Moms Clubs

Book Clubs Monday 7:00 p.m CST

Led by Anna Knaub

Zoom Room: Clubs/Membership

Within the pages of Risen Motherhood, we walk through common topics moms face to discover how they fit into the overarching story of scripture. In sickness and in health, marriages, pregnancy, children with differences, and everything in between, each chapter redirects us towards Christ, and how even in the mundane, we are fulfilling and living the Gospel each and every day. In each section, you'll find some teaching and "Gospel-Thinking Questions." These Gospel-Thinking Questions are questions we use to process through situations or topics in a biblical way.

You may laugh. You may cry. You may find yourself in the deep depths of their personal stories, or even on the other side. No matter where you are on your journey of motherhood, or your walk with Christ, this book will inject the Gospel Hope for Everyday Moments into your life.

Are you a podcast listener? Our readings include optional corresponding podcasts by the authors Emily Jensen & Laura Wifler, founders of the Risen Motherhood Podcast.

Breakdown of readings:

Week 1: Welcome!

Week 2: Chapters 1-3

Week 3: Chapter 4 and 5

Week 4: Chapter 6 and 7

Week 5: Chapter 8 and 9

Week 6: Chapter 10 and 11

Week 7: Chapter 12 and 13

Week 8: Chapter 14 and 15

Week 9: Chapter 16 and 17

Week 10: Chapter 18

Week 11: Chapter 19

Each Chapter is about 10pages.

This allows us a few flex weeks and the chance to "go over" if we get really into a topic!
