

Summer Clubs

Lower Eled

French with Drawing: Rachel Margaillan Meets Monday 11:45 am to 12:30 p.m.

Student will learn the beautiful French language as they draw and create! This is a fun and engaging class! Students should have a sketch book and drawing materials!

World Culture through Literature- Emily Wilford Meets Tuesdays 10:00 a.m to 10:45 a.m.

With read-alouds and fun activities, this club will focus on classic children's stories from around the world. Students will uncover themes and morals, experiment with illustration styles, discuss choices and consequences, and so much more! This club will allow your child to experience books like never before.

Nature Journaling- Emily Wilford

Meets Tuesdays 9:00-9:45 a.m.

Does your child love to watch animals, inspect flowers, or observe creepy-crawlies? This club is for you! Nature journaling will encourage your student to experience nature firsthand, making careful observations and growing in curiosity. Students must have a blank journal and colored pens or pencils, access to the great outdoors, nature books or photos.

Mid and Upper Level Clubs

A Horse and His Boy- Literary Circle; Dawn Pasley

Meets Thursdays 12:45 -1:30

Let's take a summer adventure! Together we'll set off on a wild ride with Shasta, the son of a fisherman! In this book club we'll enjoy this excursion by master storyteller, C.S. Lewis.

Music Lovers with Emly Wilford

Meets Tuesdays 11:00-11:45

With so much music out there, it can be hard to find the good, true, and beautiful. This club is designed to help music lovers navigate the secular music world through the lens of Christianity. We will discuss what the Bible says about music, examine the music we listen to, and build a collection of good songs and artists. If your teen is branching out in music taste, this club will strengthen discernment and build a Christ-centered community of music-lovers.

Minecraft in German: Dana Hanley

Meets Wednesday at 2:00 p.m. to 2:45 p.m.

Increase your confidence speaking German with this basic German conversation class. We will talk about movies, music, hobbies and other common interests through games, mini lessons and an engaging place to practice.

Prerequisite: Best for students with some German.

Create an Invented Language!

Teacher Dana Hanley

Meets Thursday 9 a.m. - 9:45 a.m.

This club will go over the basics of creating an invented language, whether for fun or to add depth to a sci-fi or fantasy story. It is a basic introduction to linguistics, including phonology, morphology, syntax and ethnolinguistics, but introduced in an engaging way as students look at world languages to invent their own.

German Resistance Club with Dana Hanley

Meets Wednesday 11:45 a.m. -12:30 p.m.

Required Materials

Learn about some of the groups who resisted National Socialism. Each week, we learn about a different aspect of the resistance through the stories of the men, women and teenagers who risked their lives to resist. We will look at what motivates them and the consequences they paid for holding fast to their principles. Homework consists of playing Through the Darkest of Times, where players lead their own resistance group and try to grow and fund their organization without getting caught. It is a mix of history and true-to life events while constantly weighing the risks of every action.

Music Club Emily Wilford

Meets Tuesdays 11:00-11:45

With so much music out there, it can be hard to find the good, true, and beautiful. This club is designed to help music lovers navigate the secular music world through the lens of Christianity. We will discuss what the Bible says about music, examine the music we listen to, and build a collection of good songs and artists. If your teen is branching out in music taste, this club will strengthen discernment and build a Christ-centered community of music-lovers.

Tolkien Club: Ethan Nehring

Meets Fridays 3:00p.m. to 3:45 p.m.

Dive headlong into the amazing and captivating world of J.R.R. Tolkien as we dive into The Fellowship of the Ring. This will be a discussion based club for students who love master storyteller, Tolkien!

CUFI Club: Chutzpah in the Middle East with Hannah Nehring -

Meets Fridays 11:00-11:45

Explore the history and politics of Israel and the Middle East. Students will learn the Biblical and historical relevance of this small, but feisty nation!